Enforcement Provisions

- Part 4 of the Act, which provides for sanctions and enforcement, commenced on 1 January 2017.
- Under Section 20 of the Act, the Commission may prosecute offenses under the Act including:
  - Carrying on lobbying activities without being registered;
  - Failing to make a return by the deadline;
  - Providing the Standards Commission with any information known to be inaccurate or misleading;
  - Failing to co-operate with an investigating officer who is investigating contraventions of the Act, and
  - Obstructing an investigation.
- Under Section 21 of the Act, the Commission may serve a Fixed Payment Notice (FPN) to a person who has submitted a late return.
- If a person pays the FPN, no prosecutions will be initiated.

Decisions made by the Commission under the Act

- The Commission has the authority to make decisions under sections 10, 14 and 22 of the Act. These decisions may be appealed.
- 18 applications to delay publication of registrations or returns were received under section 14 of the Act. 15 of these were submitted in error.
- Three valid requests were received, two were approved and one was denied.
- Two former DPOs applied for a reduction or waiver of the one year “cooling-off” period provided for under section 22 of the Act. In each case a partial waiver with conditions attached was granted.

First Legislative Review of the Act

- The Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform launched the first review of the Act on 31 August 2016.
- The Commission’s submission to the review included a number of recommended changes to the Act, which are available on lobbying.ie
- The Minister’s review was published on 2 May 2017 and did not recommend any amendments to the Act.
